Applicant's arguments filed 1/10/05 have been fully considered but they are not fully persuasive.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a and b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Jubb et al. (US Patent No. 6,180,546).

Jubb teaches a composite material which comprises colloidal silica bonded alkaline earth silicate fibers and in amounts of aluminum of less than 1 wt% thus anticipating the instant invention. Even if not anticipated, overlapping ranges of amounts would have been prima facie obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art (see claims). Note that all other references were withdrawn upon re-consideration of applicants' remarks/arguments.

Art Unit: 1755

Response:

The applicants argue that Jubb does not recognize the relationships between low alumina binder or fillers such as low alumina colloidal silica in obtaining paper or board having high service temperatures. In rebuttal, Jubb teaches overlapping ranges of amounts of components and thus read upon the instantly claimed invention (see, for example, applicants' claims).

Cancellation of Non-elected Claims:

Applicants are respectfully requested to cancel non-elected claims 27 and 28 in response to this final rejection office action. Should applicants convincingly argue that Jubb teaches away from their instantly claimed invention and cancel the non-elected claims, the case would be ready for allowance and issue.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
